The heart of the simplest woman Is a suystery unrevealed, And the love that seems transpar Is most hopelessly concealed. We care not for love while we have it, We know not love till 'tis lost; We scatter its tressures broad-handed, Nor recken the ultimate cost.

Le I a hand came forth from the shadow A touch that I knew of old— That could crown the gloomiest fancies With an sureole of gold.

And I think how that hand so love That craved but to lie in mine, Off met an impatient justure, Or found no responsive sigh.

o timidly, mutely j.mlous Of the love that I gave my book. And I only too well remember How I chafed at the dumb repro And aware that no thought of won Should on my studies encrosch.

Was I blind, or mad, or but heart The face and the nand are gone The light of my life has vanished I am utterly alone.

The brain that her giances kindled
Is blighted, and dead, and chilled;
And the gorgeous dreams of the inture
Can never more be fulfilled. I loved as a man who is selfish,

"She loved in a woman's way,
And man's love compared with a woman's
Is as darkness unto day.

As a spendthrift scatters his birthright,
I wasted the dower she gave;
And too late I find my ambition
Has followed ser into the grave.

The Removal of the County Seat GRAFTON. June 26, 1878.

oce of the Intelligencer : The people of Grafton were highly ed ified and amused by the glowing haran-gue that appeared in your columns this morning from the pen of that aged financier and renowned statesman Harmon Sinsel. He is the same Harmon that a few years ago pronounced the lowly Jesus o Nazareth a bastard, declared the Holy Bible a tissue of falsehoods and then abol ished Hell to suit his own convenience. How then could any one expect any thing other than fabrication, misrepre-centation and unwarranted abuse to fall from the lips of such a man? "Poison ne'er fell from lips of fouler

Harmon is not an idiot by nature. He once sought to be Lincoln's Secretary of State but met with such a rebuil as to unbalance his mind and ever since then he has been considered by his nearest friends unfortunately a fit, but not a dangerous subject for a lunatic asylum. This we plead in his behalf that the many readers of your excellent paper may not condemn him too barshly for hisbitter and malignant attack upon the honor and integrity of Gratton and her citizens. The present indebtedness of Grafton consists of one bond for $15,000, held by Elizabeth Ralba, not a widowed lady, but the wife of George Ralba, of Chicago. Her anual income is ten times more in amount than all Harmon's wealth, although she has never complained of mistreatment by Grafton, and why Harmon Sinsel, a man who claims to be the daddy of the State of West Virginia should father such untruths with regard to the finances of Grafton can be explained on no other theory than the mental Harmon is not an idiot by nature. should father such runtruths with regard to the finances of Grafton can be explained on no other theory than the mental weakness heretofore hinted.

In spite of the written and sealed agreement of some of the most responsible citizens of the county well known throughout the State, Harmon persists in declaring that it will cost the county $25,000 instead of $9,000 to build. Court House at this point, He is lead into this error from the fact that he takes as his basis of calculation a $2,000 school house that he charged $5,000 for buildhouse that he had he had house that he charged $5,000 for build-ing and a $4,000 jail that he charged the

It is worth remarking in this connection that when American inventors undertook the task of devising carpet-wearing machinery, the work was all done on hand looms by men.
